HOLIDAY ENJOYED IN CHARLEROI

Jupiter Pluvius Threatens In the Morning Hours and During Forenoon, But Gives Way to Old Sol's Benignant Rays

HOW FOLKS ENJOYED DAY

Automobile Riding, Going to Pittsburgh and Surrounding Points; At Home Attending Theatres, Bazaar, Baseball Games, and Family Picnics

That the holiday was enjoyed in Charleroi, goes without saying. Our perennial friend Jupiter Pluvius, threatened to mar the pleasure of the people by light showers in the early morning, and slight sprinkling in the forenoon, but finally gave way to Old Sol and his benignant rays. The people of Charleroi enjoyed themselves in divers ways, automobile riding, going to Pittsburgh some of them witnessing the double defeat of the Pirates; they attended the theatres, enjoyed the attractions and amenities incident to the bazaar, went to the baseball games, had picnics in the woods, et cetera.

There was a fine program at the Bazaar. The girls of the Turn Verein and athletes of the same organization pleased a large concourse at the baseball park. The crowd in the afternoon being one of the largest ever assembling on the grounds. In the evening the repetition of the act of Sully, Rodgers and Sully, and the boxing act of McFeeley and Young Cutsy, caused much merriment. Despite the rain, it cleared in time, for the fireworks, the pyrotechnical display being one of the finest ever witnessed in Charleroi.

Today is the last day of the Bazaar which has been successful from a financial and a pleasurable standpoint. It is probable that today will see the largest crowds. The receipts for the most part, at least, will be devoted toward liquidation of indebtedness on their new truck, though we believe that some of the money will be given to charitable purposes.

During July and August this store will observe its usual custom of closing at 5 p. m. every evening except Monday and Saturday. J. W. Berlyman & Son. 25-2t

CHRISTIANS MEET IN PITTSBURGH

The Washington County Christian Endeavor Union, of which Dr. Paul Trnavsky, of Charleroi, is president, will hold its annual county convention in Soldier's Memorial hall, Pittsburgh, Tuesday, July 8, jointly with the state convention, which will be held in Pittsburgh during the week beginning July 7, and will give hundreds of members the rare opportunity of attending not only the county session but, also, the state sessions.

There will be a large number of Charleroi delegates present and it is expected that there will be fully 600 delegates present from the county at the state convention. Among the important matters to come up for discussion at the county session, will be the sub-division of the county into three districts, in order to secure more efficient work from the county. County officers will, also, be elected for the ensuing year. Dr. Trnavsky has had as his officers during the past year, Miss Grace Gelder of Charleroi, corresponding secretary; Miss Kathryn Geho of California, recording secretary; and Mary McClelland, of Fredericktown, treasurer.

THE LEADER TALKS OF THE ISLE OF CUBA

The Women's Missionary society of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church met in the Sunday school rooms of the church Thursday afternoon in its regular session, which was largely attended, and spent an interesting afternoon. Mrs. Ellis Allman was leader for the day, the subject for discussion being "Cuba and Porto Rico." She was capably assisted in her work by Mrs. Lynn Robertson, Mrs. C. C. Lively and Mrs. N. W. Patton. During the entertainment hour, Mrs. Frank Smith delighted her audience with several vocal solos, rendered in her usual charming manner, while a Missionary play of a Japanese nature was successfully presented by twelve members of the King's Messengers class, who were attired in gay Japanese costumes. Following these features, luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. B. Campbell, Mrs. Al Henderson, Mrs. H. A. Godwin, Mrs. H. A. Williams, and Mrs. Edwin McKay. A color scheme of red, white and blue was carried out in keeping with the Fourth and the tables were decorated with large bouquets of red and white roses and ragged robins, which made a striking picture.

THE DELEGATES VOTE LOUD NAY TO ADJOURN

The result of the 76th ballot is little different than those previously taken with the possible exception that Mr. Smith has for the first time polled more than one-third of the ballots cast. The result is McAdoo 513, Smith 368, Davis 75 1/2, Underwood 47 1/2, Baker 1, Robinson 25, Glass 29, Ritchie 16 1/2, Salisbury 6, Walsh 2, Owens 4, Bryan 4, Ralston 1 1/2, and Cox 1.

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., July 5.—Still floundering in a deadlock with bad temper rising rather than diminishing, the Democratic National convention today entertained and then voted down a resolution to adjourn the present session in New York to reconvene in Kansas City, July 21.

Other similar resolutions were expected to be presented unless some means were found of retaining to the regular business of balloting for further presidential nominee.

After taking of the roll call and on the Kansas City Resolution was starting, a fight broke out in the runway directly beneath the speakers' stand. John Costello, National committeeman from the district of Columbia, became entangled in a Klan argument with John O'Reilly, and finally punched O'Reilly in the face. There was an immediate hub-bub and delegates and police rushed to the scene.

Governor Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska was jostled out of his chair under the speakers' stand, where he had been dozing in his black skull cap for the past 10 days.

Police cleared the runway as rapidly as possible and restored peace. The motion to adjourn to Kansas City was defeated by the time New York was reached on the roll call.

It required only a majority to carry it, but the McAdoo forces voted against the idea.

The roll call proceeded and in the mean time leaders of various delegations were scurrying the rounds trying to agree on other plans that might be used in consuming time.

A PEACEMAKER NEEDED TO SECURE A CANDIDATE

Madison Square Garden, July 5.—Every attempt to suspend the rules and take some slight step toward breaking the deadlock in the Democratic convention having failed, it appeared this afternoon that only some peacemaker who can bring the warring factions together for conference will be able to bring the convention to the nomination of a presidential candidate and ultimate adjournment.

Two attempts to suspend the rules and adopt the resolution which should provide for the elimination of the candidate getting the lower vote on each ballot failed during the early session today.

The second attempt of the day was embodied in a resolution presented by Gilbert and Hitchcock of Nebraska, and provided that the rule elimination of the low candidate would apply for today only, but it failed as other similar motions have failed. Alabama with Underwood and Virginia with Carter Glass voted violently against it.

A resolution presented to suspend the unit rule resume balloting and the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes on each ballot to drop out until but two candidates remain, then five ballots to be taken and if no choice be made on the two-thirds basis a sixth ballot be taken and the candidate receiving the majority be declared.

Ancient Thumb Rings

Imperial Rome permitted only the senators and nobles to wear golden rings. The common folk had to be satisfied with iron rings. At the time when luxury reached its climax in Rome, rings were often worn on the thumb. Many of them of a ridiculous size. One of these thumb rings, bearing an intaglio of the bust of Empress Plotina, was fully 2½ inches broad.

To Be Successful

To be successful in anything, one must cultivate the habit of thinking completely around his problem, little or big. To be satisfied with thinking two thirds or three fourths of the way around is to stand back deliberately while some one else gains greater efficiency, prestige and leadership. Many people fail because they do not think their problems through and take time enough to do it properly.—Selected.

Happiness

Happiness is the reflection of our blissful or divine nature on the mind undisturbed by desires, passions or anxieties. Happiness comes in freedom, never in slavery. True freedom means the emancipation of the soul from the bondage of ignorance, delusion, selfishness and all other imperfections.—Abhedananda.

Approved of Scriptures

Nestorian Christian missionaries were received by the Emperor Tai-tung in 631. He listened to an exposition of their creed, and ordered the Christian Scriptures translated into Chinese for his personal use. In 628 he announced that he found the new religion satisfactory, and that it might be preached within the empire.

Early Use of Penknives

The penknife is a hold over from the days before steel pens were known. Originally a penknife was a small knife used to make and mend quill pens. It was then customary for each man to cut his own pens as he needed them. Nowadays almost any kind of small pocket knife is called a penknife.

Helpless on Land

Due to the remarkable dexterity of the hell-diver in the water, it is usually impossible to approach it to within camera range, says Nature Magazine. Only when the photographer is so very fortunate as to come upon this queer bird on land, where it is helpless, may intimate portraiture be successfully indulged in.

Odd Flag of Tibet

The national flag of Tibet takes a bit of memorizing. The middle of the flag contains a gold sun rising above a white mountain; on the mountain there are two lions in white, green and red and between the "legs" of the lions a flaming gem. Any space left over in the flag is filled with alternate triangles of red and blue.

Fog Poisoning

London fogs contain all the acid and irritating ingredients of poison gas and affect the delicate membranes of the throat and respiratory organs in a serious manner, according to a prominent London specialist in nervous diseases. Many children last winter contracted "fog poisoning."

Out of Proportion

A spider enlarged to the size of a cat would be helpless, even if the relative proportions of all its parts were retained. Its legs would bend and break under the weight of its body because the muscular strength would have increased only as the square of the muscles' dimensions, while the body's weight would have increased as the cube of its parts. The fly with its relatively powerful legs easily walks upward over a vertical wall. Make it 100, or even 50 times as large, and its muscles could not begin to hold it in this way against the force of gravity.

Trouser "Galluses"

"Galluses" is an old word fast disappearing from use. It is now seldom heard except among the people of the backward districts. The word is a corruption of "gallowes," which is still used in parts of Scotland for "suspenders." "Gallowes" is only another form of "gallows," a framework for hanging criminals. It seems that our forefathers put criminals and trousers in the same category, the gallows being the common fate of both.
Although "galluses" is now considered dialectic, it was formerly used by many writers of repute.
